The Open Source Women Back Each Other Up Project
real world help for a real world problem

I will break through your Somebody Else's Problem invisibility field and come over and ask if you're okay.

I will help you contact help: friends, the police, the con organizers.

I will help you to the best of my ability if you're being harassed. Just let me know, even if you don't know me.

I will not tell you that you must have been imagining things.

I will not say to you go hide in your room.

I will not make you feel like your right to control over your own body is not a big deal.

I will do this whether or not I like you, or even know you. It's not about liking you. It's about the fact that we need to back each other up, and I will need you to do this for me some day.

The Open Source Women Back Each Other Up Project
real world help for a real world problem

The Project aims to make help against harassment visible and available, to create safer environments, to help women to support other women and men to challenge other men. We want sff, anime, comic, and other cons to be safer spaces for women.

I will break through your Somebody Else's Problem invisibility field and come over and ask if you're okay.

I will remember that you are in charge, and if you don't want my help, I will go away. I will be there to help you in the future if you need it.

I will help you contact help: your friends, the event organizers, or police/security officers, if that is what you would like.

I will help you to the best of my ability if you're being harassed or made to feel uncomfortable. Just let me know, even if you don't know me.

I will not tell you that you must have been imagining things.

I will not say to you to go home, or go hide in your room, or just stay away from that guy.

I will not make you feel like your right to control over your own body is not a big deal.
